

Task description

Consider a setting, where you received an preview of Pear Computer's last quarter's business data from your manager. Currently, you're on a business trip, but you where asked to forward some of the numbers to a partner. So you decide to use your PDA, where you open up the Mail Application and the Document Viewer.

Please write an email to Carl Smith (cs@nsm.com), captioned "Pear Q3 Data". In this email, please cite the following data from the business report:

- Total Pear Revenue
- Operating Segment-Units for Japan
- The sum of revenue of Retail and other segments
- Number of MyPods, compared to the number of Portables
- Revenue for CPUs, compared with the revenue for Software

No additional utilities (Paper, Pencil, ...) are available.
